Educational Publishing House, Limited

Educational Publishing House, Limited (EPH) was set up in Hong Kong in 1950 and incorporated in 1960. EPH is the key educational publishing arm of Popular Holdings, specialising in textbooks and supplementary materials for over 50 years. In 2000, EPH officially set up the Macau schools market. As a prominent player in educational publishing, EPH is constantly evolving in response to the needs of the education sector. In addition to comprehensive, quality learning resources, EPH provides strong teaching support, including professional teacher training and student and parent workshops.

EPH is privileged be able to count on a team of qualified scholars, authors and consultants to support it in its mission. Over the years, EPH has established an enviable track record with its excellent teaching solutions for pre-school, primary and secondary levels. Continuing to support a stimulating learning environment for both teachers and students, EPH will pursue its mission of gathering innovative teaching ideas and infusing them into the company's extensive offering of sought-after titles.
